Woolen Factory.

A communication in this issue of the Spirits treats upon a want, and a necessity, to the people of Monroe County—a woolen factory.

A little enterprise upon the part of the citizens of Woodfield in this matter is all that is required to put it into successful operation. And when in operation it will pay handsomely upon the investment, besides furnishing goods that are now purchased abroad.

Let our citizens move in this matter in earnest, and not let it die after talking about it for a few days.

Gold sold last week at $109.10, being lower than at any time since 1862.

Monday night, the 4th inst., was the coldest of the season.

A young man belonging to Peter Schafer, near Miltonburg, had three calves one day last week. They were alive and well for a short time, after which all three died.

The County Commissioners, at their session last week, declared the bridge across the mouth of Sunfish Creek, at Clarining, in a dangerous condition; and had hand-bills printed, warning all persons against crossing it.

We learn that the small-pox has made its appearance in Zanesville. Pat-nam, Steubenville, Wheeling, Marietta, and Sharon, Noble County. Call in your physicians and have your families vaccinated.

Mr. F. A. LAMPING offers twenty farms for sale in Monroe and Washington Counties. Persons desirous of locating in either county can obtain a farm on reasonable terms by addressing Mr.
LAMPING at New Matamoras, Washington County, Ohio. See advertisement.

LAND FOR SALE.—Mr. J. C. DUELL, of Clarining, offers for sale a tract of 14 acres of land situate 1 1/2 miles from that place. This land is under fine improvement, having all necessary buildings, fruit trees and other conveniences calculated to make it a desirable property. See advertisement.

There is trouble in School District No. 1, Belmont County. The Negroes insist upon sending their children to the school and the whites protest against them. About one-third of the white children have been taken away from the school.

If there are any "loyal" heads of families sending their children to that school, they will certainly not keep them at home because of the little darkies.

That's the ticket they've been voting, and they should now act as they voted.
"Vote as you shot," gentlemen, was a big thing with you, when begging soldiers for their votes to aid your party in establishing mixed schools.

A week or two since we remarked that dissatisfaction was expressed in regard to our school-house.

It seems that this remark has been tortured into a reflection upon Messrs.
O'NEILL and STONE, the builders of the house.

Such an inference is wholly unwarranted and unjust. We alluded only to the capacity and convenience of the house, with which the above named gentlemen have had nothing whatever to do.

An attempt has been made to injure the reputation of Messrs. O'NEILL and STONE, by misconstruing our remark, we will add, as an act of simple justice to them, that they are as capable and trustworthy builders as can be found in this part of the State.

[For the Spirits]
Woolen Factory.
Messrs. Editors: The subject matter of a woolen factory, at this place, has been agitated for years. I am satisfied we all feel the necessity of such a factory in Woodfield, and that if properly managed it would amply pay a company that would start such factory here. The only question is, have we the enterprise to go to work and raise the means to start it?

One of the difficulties has been the price of coal. This will be a small matter, if we procure the best machinery that can be run by the least amount of fuel. We have the location for such a factory, and that will more than compensate for the price of coal.

My opinion is, that all that is now wanting is a little industry and liberality, on the part of our people, to put the matter into successful operation. Shall we have it?

Collation, the duty upon which is 133 per cent, paid last year exactly $4 revenue to the Government; but at the same time, this duty enhanced the cost of all the photographic and photographers' materials in the country at least 25 per cent., as collodion is one of the principal ingredients in nearly all photographic processes, and is otherwise extensively consumed. So much for a Protective tariff.

Now is the Time to Subscribe.
Ten Copies of the "Spirits" FOR $15 00.

Owing to frequent applications from Democrats in every township in Monroe County, we have concluded to club the Spirits at the rate of 10 copies, one year, for $15 00, from now to April 1, 1872.

After that time we will not receive club subscriptions at a lower rate than $2 00 per year.

Democrats canvass your townships and send in the names of two or three hundred yearly subscribers, as a New Year's Gift, to the Spirits.

Single subscribers will be charged the usual subscription, $2 00 per year.

Our Club Agents can forward fifty subscribers from each township, by January 1, and do it by canvassing not more than one week.

Show this to your neighbors, Democrats and Republicans, and ask them to subscribe.

Board of County Commissioners.
The Board met on Monday, the 4th inst. Present WILLIAM WORKMAN and CHRISTIAN CHILES.

JAMES ARMSTRONG, elected County Commissioner at the late election, presented his bond in the sum of $10,000 which was accepted, and Mr. ARMSTRONG entered upon the duties of his office.

Archibald HOSKINS, elected Recorder at the late election, presented his bond which was accepted and approved.
Jas. R. Morris was paid $5, attorney fee in case of Ohio vs. Watson.

The Auditor was ordered to issue an order on the Treasurer for $5 to pay for revenue stamps on official bonds.

The Auditor was ordered to insert an advertisement in the Spirits of Democracy, for four weeks, for the building of two iron bridges—one across Opossum Creek and one across Narrows Run. To be finished by March 20, 1872.

Ordered, that S. P. Jones be paid $40 for clothing furnished convicts in county jail.

George Caldwell, elected Sheriff at the late election, presented his bond, which was accepted and approved.

Ordered, that Jesse Jackson be paid $17 50, fees as Infirmary Director.

Ordered, that Jacob C. Yoho be paid $20, fees as Infirmary Director.

Bills presented by O. S. Sloan, G. S.
Newcomer & Co., P. Schumacher, Jr., H. Hoeller, J. P. Spriggs and Louis Hoeller were all paid.

Costs in the case of Ohio vs. Winland, $19 45, were allowed. Costs in the case of Ohio vs. Watson were allowed.

The Auditor was ordered to make a new transfer book.

Viewers were appointed to view an alteration of a road petitioned for by John Smyth and others, to report at the next meeting of the Board.

AJourned to meet on the 17th day of January, 1872.

Mr. BECKETT, formerly of this county, now residing in Fairview, Guernsey County, has traded his stock of goods for what is known as the Bankner farm, in that county.

Protection coat, a builder in Boston a loss of $30,000 on the last ship built there. The last steamer built in New York cost its builder a loss of $50, 000. That's what the leaders of Radicalism term protecting home industry.

A CARD.
At a meeting of the Directors of the Monroe Mutual Fire Insurance Company, on the 13th of November, 1871, it was Resolved, That the President and Secretary make out and publish a statement, showing the present condition of the Company.
In compliance with that resolution, we have made up and present the following statement:
Uncollected assessments due the Company, $4,198 16
Notes due the Company, 27 00 In hands of former Secretary, 102 19 In Secretary's hands, 28 20 Making, $4,355 35
From which deduct unpaid losses, 1,490 00 Leaving, $2,865 35
We are satisfied that a sufficient amount can be collected to pay off the losses and leave a surplus to pay contingent expenses, &c. We regret that the Company is not better known, and will be glad to receive applications for insurance, of all suitable property, and promise as favorable terms as any sound and solvent Company can give. H. B. HILL, Pres.
W. F. OKEZ, Sec.

Problems, Puzzles, Enigmas, Riddles and Answers.

[For the Spirits.]

WAYNE T. P., Dec. 2, 1871.
Enigmas: After patiently waiting for some time for some of my brother puzzlers to open the winter campaign, I became impatient at their delay and resolved to introduce the subject myself, by proposing a few problems for solution in your invaluable paper. Boys, don't be backward, but send in your productions and let us have an interesting column the coming winter.

[1.] If the fence inclosing the area of a circular race course is exactly one mile in length, how many acres of land does it enclose?

[2.] What is the diameter of a circle whose area is a square rod?

[3.] How much water will fill a tube of 1 inch diameter of bore and one mile long?

[4.] If 10 per cent interest is compounded every 6 months on $1,000 how much more than simple interest is it in 5 years?

Threatened Resistance to Law in Georgia.
Mr. Conley, the acting Governor of Georgia, means mischief. He has intimated that he will retain his power in spite of the Legislature. The papers of the State are apprehensive from Conley's assertions, that the Radical party of Georgia do not intend to give up power at the bidding of anybody, and that they expect to be upheld in this usurpation by the President of the United States, with the army and navy at his back.

The Savannah Republican, commenting on this State of affairs, says:
"We shall see whether Gen. Grant has progressed far enough in the road to arbitrary power to support any such revolutionary measure in a State. Whatever may be the Acting Governor's opinion of the election act as regards its constitutionality, the Legislature has passed it into a law, and as it is a sworn duty to obey it himself, and see that it is respected by others until a competent tribunal shall have declared it unconstitutional.
He is not that authority. There are many laws on the statute book that were passed over the constitutional scruples of the Executive for the time being, but no Executive ever presumed to disregard them on that account."

In announcing that it would observe Thanksgiving day by suspending publication, the Mason (Ga.) Telegraph comforts its readers in the following job-like style:

"Let us maintain a cheerful composure and grateful hearts that affairs are no worse with us than they are. Some old grumbler will ask, 'How could they be worse?' Shut up, you old Turk, and we will tell you. If you were in one of those Northwestern States—with your shops, mills, houses, furniture, clothing, provisions, all burned up—half of your family singed off—your right arm burned to a crisp—your back in a blister, and living on the snow without blankets, and the mercury thirty degrees below zero, you would be in a worse condition than you are now."

Female Labor.
The question of "female labor" has not with a practical solution in the cutting manufacturing districts of Thuringia. The women polish the blades and carve the handles. A daughter often sizing a hammer to aid her father at the anvil. A family of eight can turn out about thirty dozen knives a week, receiving twenty-three and one-third cents per dozen, furnishing the material at that. In spite of this meagre pay the people are contented. The forge is usually placed on the ground floor, the polishing and carving being done in an apartment overhead.

In our present enlightened and unoppressive tariff, the wool of which is very largely consumed by the carpet monopolists, is taxed 28 per cent., but the ingrained carpet taxed 55 per cent.
Thus, the poor farmer has just one-half the protection that is extended to the rich manufacturer. He must sell his wool in a market beaten down by the competition of the cheap wools of Australia and the Cape, and must buy his finest American ingrain in a market exorbitantly taxed by duty, freight, and local. The carpet which sells in London for 50 cents a yard costs the Indian and Ohio farmer $1 50!

DIED.
At his residence, on Atkinson's Run, November 20, Mr. David Tenen, aged 82 years.

On the 23rd inst., Mr. Robert A. Sprague, of Switzerland township.

We learn that Mr. Sprague had been to Cannon with a load of tobacco, and was returning home in company with one or two others, and had gone but a short distance on the road when he fell back in his wagon and immediately expired. Pronounced an attack of apoplexy. Mr.
Sprague was near 50 years of age. He leaves a wife and several children.

On the 23rd ult., at the residence of Mr.
George Noyes, of Sunbury township, Mr.
Thomas Dyer, of Painesville of the Lung.
